LAKE-SIDE RACING.

That Virginia Bradley's Boney Boy is an iron horse and capable of standing the same tough treatment that his sire, Blitzen, did is no longer a matter of doubt in the minds of those who have been close observers of the Lakeside races. Yesterday for the fifth time in a week the colt has been sent to the post and in three of these starts he won; was second once and unplaced once. He has been sent all sorts of distances from five furlongs up to a mile and has been asked to beat some of the best horses at the track. Saturday last he galloped away from Frank Bell and Queen of Song at three quarters. Monday at a mile he finished behind Timemaker, Al Fresco and The Devil. Tuesday the youngster got a rest. Wednesday he won at seven furlongs. Thursday Gold Fox beat him at five furlongs and yesterday, just as fresh as a daisy, although some say Bradley thought he might be a bit short, he beat an all-aged field at seven furlongs in a common gallop.

There were sixteen original entries in the race, but half of these were scratched. Storm King and Timemaker were among the scratches. With these two out of the way, Bradley smiled and remarked that he did not think that there was "anything to it." His statement proved to be correct, and Boney Boy, getting off second, went right on to the front, and at the finish he was five open lengths to the good. He finished fresh and full of running, and if nothing happens will be started right back again today in the mile race, which seems to be at his mercy.

Walkenshaw, who finished second to Boney Boy, was backed from 15 to 1 down to 8 to 1 and ran a cracking good race. He got away fifth and met with interference on the first turn. Down the backstretch, though, he had a clear path and made up ground rapidly, getting the place as easily as Boney Boy won. Better handled, a lot of money could have been made out of this horse. His first Lakeside start was against O'Connell and Montgomery, he finishing third. The field he had to beat yesterday was far above the ordinary, and when he gets in where he belongs his party will have to take a short price for their money.

Algeta made her initial appearance this year in this same race, but showed none of her two-year-old form. The filly looked good and pulled up sound. She has been sick the entire season, but Mr. Havill says she is all right now and will be shipped to New Orleans for a winter's campaign. Last fall $10,000 was refused for this filly.

It would be out of the ordinary course of affairs at Lakeside for a day to pass without a surprise, but everything up to the fifth race was tame and as Schorr's good sprinter, Sligo II, with Burns up, seemed to have this at his mercy, it looked as though the surprise would be shut out. Such, however, was not the case, as after the horses had passed the wire and number eleven was hung out, the spectators looked at each other in amazement, then at their score cards, and discovering that Mary Kinsella was the winner, at once proceeded to learn at her price was. The filly was at one time as good as 75 to 1, but went to the post at 60 to 1. The race was a peculiarly run one and plainly demonstrated that no matter how much a horse outclasses his field he must be fit and ready in order to run in the mud Sligo II, on his best form, far outclassed the field, but after several breakaways at the post in which he was much used the horse got tired. Uncas was presented with a running start and led by daylight all down the backstretch and to the quarter post, when he stopped badly. Sligo II had been in second position the entire journey, and when Uncas chucked it up he went to the front and when straightened away for home looked all over a winner. Below the eighth post, though, the Schorr horse began to show signs of distress and Burns went to his whip. All at once up shot something in white on the inside, and, coming with a winning rush, passed Sligo II, as though he was stationary and won by three-quarters of a length. It was Mary Kinsella, and everything was silence until handicapper Ed O'Malley discovered who it was, then he let out a yell that almost lifted the top off the stand. He had bet $4 to win at 75 to 1 and about the same amount to show on the filly. Newgatherer, who had got away badly, nipped Sligo out by a nose for the place.

Following right on top of Mary Kinsella's success came the victory for another long shot. This was Count Fonso at 15 to 1 in the last race. Caywood rode him and, getting off seventh, managed to avoid interference on the first turn. On the backstretch he went to the front and the Count, having speed to loan, galloped along in front all the way and came home the easiest kind of a winner. Double Dummy, after being bumped and interfered with at the half mile ground, recovered gamely and beat Moncreith for the place. The latter was an 8 to 5 favorite and heavily played. Burns rode him, and he had no excuses other than those in front of him had too much speed.

The only close finish of the day occurred in the first race, which was a three-quarter dash for maiden fillies. Exquisite won but it took her best efforts to beat Lady Fitzsimmons. The latter had quite a turn of speed and led by a couple of lengths to the head of the stretch, where Exquisite joined her. From the eighth post to the wire the pair had it nip and tuck and flashed by the judges almost on even terms.

The second race furnished a moderately close finish. Nora Ives was the winner, but had the race been a sixteenth further a different story might have been told. She got away flying, and was clear of everything at the head of the stretch, but right at the end she was failing rapidly and was lucky to beat Martha Fox, who was coming strong, by three-quarters of a length.

The mile and a half race was a tame affair. Swordsman got away second, but immediately went to the front, and leading the entire journey, won with a lot in hand. Lucid, driven out, was second and George Lee third. Swordsman was a 2 to 1 shot and well played. He seems to be cherry ripe just now.

The entire stable of Walden & Sweet will be sold at auction at an early date. Billy Mason is in good form now and will make a useful horse this winter at New Orleans.

NEW JOCKEY CLUB RULES.

The monthly meeting of the Jockey Club in New York Thursday afternoon was marked by the adoption of the following changes in the rules of racing.

Rule 62 was amended by adding the following as a separate paragraph:

"Entries and declarations by telegraph must be promptly confirmed in writing."

An amendment to the second paragraph of Rule 80, by the addition of the words, "Nor be barred from any race," was carried, and the amended rule now reads as follows:

No horse shall carry extra weight nor be barred from any race for having run second or in any lower place in a race.

The amendment apparently grew out of the question whether Doc Steele's Galilee, having been second in the Futurity, should not have been penalized for winning $5,000. Gus Clason, a nephew of the late D. D. Withers, raised the question.

Several proposed amendments in the wording of Rule 77 were adopted as follows: "Amend scale of weights for age by reducing the weight for two and three miles, except for two-year-olds," which remains unchanged. The fourth paragraph was amended by striking out the words, "Where the weights are fixed absolutely in the conditions," and substituting the words, "Where the conditions expressly state to the contrary." This fourth paragraph now reads:

Except in handicaps and in races where the conditions expressly state to the contrary, fillies two years old shall be allowed three pounds, and mares three years old and upward shall be allowed five pounds before September 1 and three pounds afterward. Geldings shall be allowed three pounds.

This same Rule 77 was further amended by striking out the last paragraph, which reads:

"If in a handicap for which there is a minor forfeit declared for a fixed time after the publication of the weight the highest weight accepting was originally less than 126 pounds, it shall be raised to that weight and the other acceptances equally."

This action is apparently a retrogression, but secretaries of meetings have all been dodging the issue by making handicaps without minor forfeits. Applications for this change in the rule were made from various quarters.

A proposition to amend Rule 147 by adding as second paragraph, "A jockey under suspension shall not be permitted to ride in races for any one during the period of his suspension," was not adopted. The second paragraph of Rule 126 was amended by adding after the words "in all selling races" the words "except selling handicaps." The same rule, third paragraph, was amended by striking out the word "entry" and substituting the words "naming the price," so that it now reads, "The allowance of five pounds for apprentices under this rule must be claimed at the time of naming the price and be so stated in the entry, and the owner shall not be permitted to abandon such allowance, except by consent of the stewards."

A proposition to amend Rule 10 by striking out the last seven words, "From the members of the Jockey Club," was lost. The amended rule would have read as follows: "There shall be three Stewards of the meeting—one appointed by the Jockey Club, one by the Racing Association at whose track the meeting shall take place, and a third who shall be elected by the two Stewards aforesaid," the elimination to have come after the word "aforesaid."

TRAINER LEIGH'S PLANS.

Eugene Leigh's management of the string of two-year-olds placed in his charge by Mrs. E. O. Pepper last spring was a really remarkable feature of the racing season of 1898, and can long be to him justly a source of pride. He arrived in Cincinnati Thursday, and of his career this year and his plans for 1899, the Enquirer says: "Mr. Leigh's time and attention the past year were almost entirely devoted to training and racing a string of two-year-olds for Mrs. E. O. Pepper. As a result of his skillful and intelligent work Mrs. Pepper has the distinction of being the only American woman that has campaigned a stable of horses and made a success of it her first season."

"Mr. Leigh started out at Newport in the spring with thirteen two-year-olds, the property of the mistress of Meadowthorpe, all of which had been bred at the Pepper establishment, near Lexington. When the stable went to Washington Park all but five of the horses had been sold, the five that still continued to carry the Pepper colors at the big Chicago meeting, and subsequently in the east being Kentucky Colonel, Black Venus, King Barleycorn, Ned Wickes and Satin Slipper. These, the pick of the lot that had left Lexington in the spring, after a successful season on the eastern tracks, were sold to good advantage recently at public sale. From the time that they began racing at Newport until the stable was finally 'wound up' recently, the horses that composed it had won in purses and stakes $35,000. The horses that had been sold realized all told $30,000, leaving a neat profit for Mrs. Pepper of $50,000 for the season."

"It is not to be inferred from the fact that all the horses which raced in her name the past season were sold that Mrs. Pepper will not be represented on the turf again next season. She will start out again next year with nearly or quite as big a string as she had at the outset of the present season. She has at Meadowthorpe sixteen promising yearlings, a dozen by the successful sire Kantaka, three by Perblaise and one by Kingston. From these a stable will be established for next season, and, as this year, Mr. Leigh will do the training, an arrangement to that effect having already been entered into by Mrs. Pepper and himself."

"He will have quite a string of youngsters on the turf, as in addition to the Pepper lot he will have a bunch of his own. He has thirty yearlings at Lexington, and from these he will secure his own individual stable. It is his present intention to pick from the two lots about twenty of the best, figuring from looks and breeding, and these will be sent to the Brooklyn track this winter and be got ready for the eastern campaign. With the best of the others Mr. Leigh will begin his season's racing at Newport. He has headed the list of winning owners at every meeting at the Campbell County track, and he hopes to duplicate his previous successes next spring. Newport will be the only track in the west at which he will race. He has not made a single entry in western stakes, and he says that he does not intend to do so. He will have only two-year-olds in his stable next season. He does not want any old horses, as he wants to educate his horses himself. He is an acknowledged successful two-year-old trainer, and he says he would rather train ten two-year-olds than one old horse."

"Mr. Leigh has taken up his residence in the east, and the purpose of his present visit is to have a look at his own and the Pepper yearlings, and also to attend the coming thoroughbred sales at Lexington, to be held by Easton and by Messrs. Woodard & Shanklin, beginning on the 21st instant."

Bon Jour, place, 2 to 5. Robert Latta, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Gomez, show, even.

Friesland also closed strong. Etidorpha was taken the longest way. Frank McConnell showed more speed than usual. B. G. Fox pulled up when Candadas fell. The latter was going easy when he fell.

Winner—B. g. by Coriolanus—Fredone.
Post 15 minutes. Start good. The first three were driving hard. Flop hung on better than usual and was well ridden. Hush also showed more gameness. The field turned wide coming into the stretch and Orme came through on the rail, but Thompson pulled him up after gaining the advantage. Better ridden, Liew Anna would have won. Crusader showed early speed. John Sullivan ran his race.
Scratched—Philip Byrnes, 92.
Overweights—Liew Anna, 3 pounds; Aryan, 3; Miss Emma, 5.

Winner—Ch. f, by Purse Bearer—Lelia.
Post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won in a terrific drive of two; third and fourth doing their best. Exquisite barely lasted long enough. Lady Fitzsimmons stopped and came again. Holden rode a good hand finish on the winner. Exquisite was the best and was also favored by good racing luck. Lady Fitzsimmons is speedy and likes the mud. Long Suit was right there. So was Radaire, who was badly interfered with. La Champagne was pocketed all the way. My Friend, off poorly, was never urged. Blanche showed a sharp turn of speed.
Exquisite, place, 3 to 5. Lady Fitzsimmons, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Long Suit, show, 6 to 5.

Winner—B. f, by Himyar—Lulu S.
Post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving and out to the last ounce; second and third driving also. Nora Ives was fortunate in getting away, always had clear sailing, but only staggered home. She is best in the mud, but is none too game and dislikes a route. Martha Fox ran a creditable race and Phidias a cracking good one from where he got away. The latter was practically left and made up a great lot of ground. Bright Night deserves attention from now on. He was bumped about and jostled and stopped as if short at the end. Nailier, off in the rear division, never had any speed and ran a bad race. Mendacious is becoming a better actor at the post. She got away well and ran a fair race. Foxnette was sharply interfered with and obliged to pull up at the start.
Scratched—Sun God, 101; Easter Card, 110; Juggler, 105; Falsetto Jr., 101; Nellie Fonso, 98.
Overweights—Nora Ives, 3 pounds; Martha Fox, 3; Mendacious, 4; Mountain Dew, 5.

Winner—Ch. g, by Blitzen—Sue B.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second whipped out; third and fourth driving hard. Boney Boy had a surplus of speed, reveled in the going and cantered all the way. He is certainly an iron horse and in many ways like his sire. Walkenshaw, well played, showed a liking for mud and ran a good race. This is a fair colt but seems to have been badly placed. David did his best. Mr. Johnson ran a bad race. Still he was shut off at the start and never really got to going. Donna Rita ran a fair race but nothing near her mark. Molo acted sour. He refused to break several times and would not extend himself after getting away. Algareta looked high in flesh and showed none of her last year's form. Prince Blazes had no speed at all.
Scratched—Storm King, 117; Czarowitz, 107; Timemaker, 117; Mido, 107; Howard M., 107; Patron, 102; Pitfall, 104; La Princessa, 104.

Winner—Br. c, by Cavalier—Herschel.
Off at first break to a good start. Won handily; second and third driving. Swordsman seems to be in excellent form now. He galloped under a stout pull all the way. This colt likes a route and heavy going. Lucid, under his light weight, did not sulk and ran a good race. Better ridden he probably would have beaten Swordsman. George Lee ran a much better race than the day before. Dr. Marks' race was very bad. So was Frank Jaubert's. The latter seems to be of no account whatever at present.
Scratched—Alvarado II., 111; Muskalonge, 99; Red, 97; King's Highway, 86.

Winner—B. f, by Sir Dixon—Lady Elizabeth.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving hard; second and third under keen pressure. Mary Kinsella overcame herself. She liked the going and was well ridden. With an equal break Newgatherer would have won. He was off poorly, interfered with often and finished with a rush. Sligo II practically ran his race at the post. He is good now. Borden had a rough journey. Johnny Williams was shut off and obliged to pull up. Silver Set showed speed but could not last. W. C. T. bled and was eased up. Marzella ran a creditable race. Uncas, off in the lead, showed some speed.
Scratched—Doustswivel, 103; King Bermuda, 100.

Winner—Ch. g, by Prince Fonso—Artless.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily. It was a drive for the place. Count Fonso reveled in the going and had abundant speed. He is a fair selling plater and his price was out of line. Caywood sat still on the gelding the entire route. Double Dummy ran a good game race. He was pocketed and badly interfered with down the backstretch. Moncreith tired at the end. Overland made up a lot of ground in the last three furlongs. Glenmoyme showed a lot of speed. This horse is about ready. Redskin pulled up lame.
